*"Well, I don't know as I want a lawyer to tell me what I cannot do.
I hire him to tell how to do what I want to do."*

- J. P. Morgan

ATTORNEY ADVERTISING

Karen J. Orlin P.L., a law firm, and its Managing Member, Karen J. Orlin, focus on legal services to privately owned businesses, investors in public and privately owned companies, not-for-profit entities such as non-governmental organizations, banks and other financial institutions, and auctioneers and auction businesses.

These services include legal representation relating to:

- domestic and international mergers, acquisitions, sales, exchanges, conversions, reorganizations, dissolutions and other business and commercial transactions,
- corporate and limited liability company governance and fiduciary duty,
- shareholder agreements, shareholders agreements, stockholder agreements, stockholders agreements, operating agreements, and limited liability company agreements,
- employment agreements, independent contractor agreements, consulting agreements,
- other shareholder, member, owner, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, voting, sale restriction, option, subscription, and investor agreements,
- confidentiality, non-competition, and non-solicitation agreements,

- dissolution and separation agreements,
- licensing, distribution, agency, vendor, customer, operational, business and commercial agreements,
- personnel policy manuals,
- commercial lending and investment, and
- regulation of auctioneers and auction businesses.

Ms. Orlin provides forensic consulting and litigation support in corporate, limited liability company and not-for-profit entity governance, securities law, fiduciary duty, and legal ethics, including legal malpractice.

She is a Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Dispute Resolution Arbitrator.

She also is a published author and a seminar speaker regarding mergers and acquisitions, securities law, opinion letter standards, limited liability company governance and fiduciary duty, not for profit entity law and legal ethics and has taught law school and paralegal studies classes in Miami and New York City.

Ms. Orlin ghostwrites, writes and edits legal articles, notes, guides, checklists, outlines, charts, forms and other content regarding limited liability companies, corporations and business transactions law for other websites, blogs and publications.

Ms. Orlin holds a J.D. from the Harvard Law School and a Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude in mathematics from the University of Pennsylvania, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She is AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rated* by Martindale-Hubbell®, named among South Florida's Top Rated Lawyers of 2015 by Legal Leaders (ALM 2015 in The Miami Herald and The Daily Business Review), listed in numerous editions of The Marguis Who's Who in the World and Who's Who in America, admitted to practice law in New York and Florida, and available to represent clients throughout Florida and the New York City greater metropolitan area.

The first nine years of Ms. Orlin's legal career were in private practice with Kronish, Lieb, Shainswit, Weiner & Hellman LLP (now Cooley LLP) in New York City, where she handled a broad range of business and commercial matters. Since 1981, she has practiced primarily in South Florida: 28 years in private practice including such law firms as Akerman, Senterfitt & Eidson, P.A. (now Akerman LLP), seven years as Senior Vice President and in house counsel for a regional, publicly owned financial institution acquired in 1995 by a bank (now a division of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.) and, during 2007, as General Counsel for a national bank.
